FORREST Kingcade

Sunrise - MAY 10, 1973 Sunset - MAY 05, 2021

FOREST Kingcade

Forest C. Kingcade, Jr. was born May 10, 1973 to Mary Kingcade and Forest Kingcade, Sr. of Maywood, IL.

Forest grew up in Maywood, IL where he attended Washington Elementary School and Proviso East High School. He was a great artist, receiving a certificate in arts and had a love for basketball.

Forest enjoyed time with his family, especially his three sons Jalen, Chamar and Petey, playing video games. He also loved music, barbecuing his favorite food (ribs), eating cabbage made by Ms. Linnie and fish with spaghetti made by the love of his life, Nadine.

Forest, as a child, had favorite moments: being with his dad and playing baseball, wearing his big brother Lawrence's clothes, playing games with his sister Lean and hogging the television from his other sister Cecil.

Forest was baptized in 1981 at Argo Temple Church of God In Christ located in Summit, IL.

Forest is preceded in death by his father, Forest C. Kingcade, Sr.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his beloved mother, Mary Kingcade, his loving son, Jalen Kingcade; two bonus sons, Chamar Sallis, Peddy Man (Shianta) Baldwin; one bonus daughter, Sharayne Ball; the love of his life, Nadine Sallis; brother, Lawrence (Dorothy) Mack; two sisters, Cecil Kingcade, Lena (Geno) Rollins; three grandsons, Wizzle, Chamar, Jr. and Jacion; three granddaughters, Najay, Breana and Asharie; a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Final Goodbye

Love Tributes

No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment thou shalt condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD, and their righteousness is of me, saith the LORD. Isaiah 54:17

Love Mom

I love you brother. Until we meet again.

Rochelle

To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: a time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; a time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; a time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; a time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away; a time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; a time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

Ecclesiastes 3: 1-8

Cecil

I am going to miss you little brother. Until We meet again.

Lawrence

Shake was a good person and he always had my back. He also had a special bond with my mom, he called her Miss Sallis. He will truly be missed.

Love Tributes

Dad, Love you with all my heart and will miss you.

Talen

First of all, I want to take the time and start by saying that my dad was a good person. He didn't deserve what happened to him. He would always call me and ask what I am doing and I would tell him nothing, just lying here staring at the ceiling thinking. He would then say "OK, well, I just called to see what you were doing." I would ask him what he was doing. He would tell me nothing, just sitting watching TV, drinking a beer. I would then ask what he was going to do after that and he'd say "nothing. Probably fenna turnover here and do the same thing." Meaning that he was going to lay down. He would then tell me "Well, I'll talk to you in the morning."

There was a night he called me around midnight but I didn't realize until the next morning that he had called. I saw on the phone that there was a missed call from him. I called him back and he did not answer. I thought he might have been busy and would call me back when he was available.

The point I'm trying to make is that you never know when it's going to be that person's (my dad) last breath. So cherish every moment like it is.

Dad, I will always love you.

Always your Daughter

I remember the walks to the store, fun days at the park playing and the barbecue's that helped us bond as a family; the Christmas holidays with big gifts and getting everything I wanted!

You were so good to me that I can't be sad. You may not be here in the physical form but your soul lives forever and I can feel your presence and see your smile. You did your part here on earth that has left a mark and being a father in my life was one of them.

I understand and know that one day we will meet again.

Love you Dad.
