Lucille CLINKSCALES

She was born April 28, 1933, in Saltillo, MS. to Ezekiel Miller and (Kizzie) Annie Sherrod.

During the 1950's, Lucille spent some time in Michigan and then eventually relocated to Illinois where she worked for the Beskin and Love families until she retired.

When she rededicated her life to Christ during her middle ages, she served as an active member of the New Beginning Missionary Baptist Church in Waukegan, Illinois.

Her interests included family, cooking, listening to gospel music and watching western movies. She devoted much of her time and energy to loving and reconnecting family members and friends.

After battling her illness for over the past couple of months, Lucille passed on shortly after a visit from her pastor Robert Brown in Warren Barr North Shore, Highland Park, Illinois. Being the realist that she was, she gracefully participated in the planning of her transition during the past few weeks of her life.

Lucille departed this life April 29, 2021. She leaves to cherish her memory: one sister, Earlene Byrd of Milwaukee, Wisconsin; one son, Benny (Marie) Taylor of Las Vegas, Nevada; two daughters Sylvia Lumpkin of Milwaukee, Wisconsin and Darlene Lyman of Racine, Wisconsin; three grandsons, Frederick Coleman of Zion, Illinois, Robert Taylor of Tyler, Texas, and Elijah (Airel) Garrett of Kenosha, Wisconsin; five granddaughters, Charlisa (Stephen) Ayornu of Lake Bluff, Illinois, ShaWanda Coleman of Waukegan, Illinois, Shawna Crout of Atlanta, Georgia, Abeni (John) Johnson-Chibuzor of Abidjan, Côte d'Ivoire, and Christina Bess-Taylor of Kenosha, Wisconsin; a god-daughter, (Octavia) Hailey Spencer; twenty-three great-grandchildren; and two great, great grandsons, Jaciel and Adan.

She will also be remembered by her nephews, nieces, other relatives and friends as she joins her loved ones that have passed before her, most notably, her late husband, Sylvester Clinkscales, Jr.

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

"Baby, you don't have to tell me how close we were...I'm going to miss her..." -Johnny Black

"...She would wake me up to eat hotdogs and hot chocolate...It took me a long time to eat hot dogs again..." -Shirley Williams

"I had a lot of adventures at the house on Lewis...I used to sneak Jack out to fight with other dogs in the neighborhood until I got scared when he got bitten pretty bad..." -Fred Coleman

Thank you for being you, unapologetic, stern, direct and loving, a true definition of a matriarch. - Elijah Garrett

*March 10, 2019 will be a day I will never forget.
I heard her soft, kind voice say, "Is this you, my long lost granddaughter? I have been waiting for you for 40 years!"*

She said she believed that God kept her alive so that she could meet her only son's baby girl. She would say, "I waited for you."

*March 20, 2021, I visited my grandmother at the hospital, one day before my birthday, then I walked into her room, she said, "Nicole, I have been waiting for you! She said, "

On April 27, 2021 I called Grandma to wish her a Happy Birthday. When Lisa video chatted with me, she said, "I've been waiting for you to sing Happy Birthday to me."

On April 29, 2021 at 10:23 am, I could hear a still voice saying to me, "I have waited for my daughter,"

*The Lord Almighty called our sweet grandmother home to Him.
She will see Him face to face and say,
"I've been waiting on you, My Lord." He will reply,
"Welcome Home, My Daughter"*

*Wade and Patricia Jackson- adopted children
Wade, Jr. and David Jackson- adopted grandchildren
Con R. and Conrad Johnson- great-grand children*

"You don't take a class; you're thrown into motherhood and learn from experience." - Jennie Finch

*"Thank you for always finding ways to improve your mothering skills"
- Charlisa Ayornu*

"I love you and I will miss you and I hope that you'll be save in heaven with GOD" - with love, Jaciel Isaac

"Thank you for everything, god bless you and I love you" - Benny Taylor
