Who can find a virtuous woman? For her price is far above rubies. The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil. She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life. She seeketh wool, and flax, and worketh willingly with her hands. She is like the merchants' ships; she bringeth her food from afar. She riseth also while it is yet night, and giveth meat to her household, and a portion to her maidens. She considereth a field, and buyeth it: with the fruit of her hands she planteth a vineyard. She girdeth her loins with strength, and strengtheneth her arms. She perceiveth that her merchandise is good: her candle goeth not out by night. She layeth her hands to the spindle, and her hands hold the distaff. She stretcheth out her hand to the poor; yea, she reacheth forth her hands to the needy. She is not afraid of the snow for her household: for all her household are clothed with scarlet. She maketh herself coverings of tapestry; her clothing is silk and purple. Her husband is known in the gates, when he sitteth among the elders of the land. She maketh fine linen, and selleth it; and delivereth girdles unto the merchant. Strength and honour are her clothing; and she shall rejoice in time to come. She openeth her mouth with wisdom; and in her tongue is the law of kindness. She looketh well to the ways of her household, and eateth not the bread of idleness. Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her. Many daughters have done virtuously, but thou excellest them all. Favour is deceitful, and beauty is vain: but a woman that feareth the Lord, she shall be praised. Give her of the fruit of her hands; and let her own works praise her in the gates.

Quote

Come to me, all of you who are weary and carry heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you.

Ezora Mae Bassett was

A child of God, a mother, a daughter, a sister, a grandmother, a great grandmother, a wife, an aunt, a cousin, a friend, a confidant, a protector, a financier, our ride or die, a basketball player, a pitty pat, gin rummy and solitaire player, a beautician, a store owner/keeper, a business woman, devoted, loving, caring, cooking, PRAYING die hard Dallas Cowboys' fan and many more things that we don't have enough space to mention; but the most important title Ezora Mae Bassett had was a PRAYING child of God. There was a never a time we can remember when Ezora Mae wasn't praying for 1, 2, 3, or even all of us to help us make it through whatever situation. Ezora understood how important it was and is for us all to stay connected to our Heavenly Father at all times, even when we so called have it all figured out'. Ezora always found the time to quote a Bible verse when we seemed to struggle with a worldly problem and wanted some Mama E advice. In our fondest memories we could always hear her saying, "God won't put more on you than you can bear," (Cor.10:13) which translated to us that 'God got you', since we always seemed to be overwhelmed by the results of our own actions. It was through Ezora Mae's biblical and holy teachings that we learned how to be good children of God and strong believers

The Bassett Family will close with Prov 22:6 which states, "Train up a child in the way he should go: And when he is old, he will not depart from it."As you can see throughout Mama E's program her grand and great grandchildren were the most important aspect of her life so she would encourage you all to LIVE your lives, LOVE your family and ALWAYS keep your eyes on God!!
