A Wonderful Peace

Fallen asleep in Jesus:

How precious are those words, enjoying now forever in the presence of the Lord.

This is not goodbye; this is only farewell.

A little while – a moment we too, with Christ shall dwell.

And so, we dry the fallen tears, because we know the Lord is near.
Mother, Grandmother, Great-grandmother was tired and weary with the toil and pain.

She put her glasses and rocker down. She will not need them anymore.

Into Heaven bright mansion she entered. Never to sigh or weep after long years of life struggle.
She has fallen to sleep.

When our life journey is ended; we shall again be with you.

This helps to quiet our weeping heart.

The Angelic music is so sweet, He's given to His beloved, Beautiful, Beautiful Sleep.

Always remembering my children: Ronald and Sharon

My grandchildren: Ronald Jr., Bridgett, Byron, Fred D. Jr., Theresa, and Erika.

My great-grandchildren: Hannah, Haleigh, Xavion, Olivia, Phillip Jr,
Scott, and Brooke

From Mother, Grandmother and Great-grand Mother

I love you and miss you Grandmother Margerine,

But you are in Heaven with God.

Fred Jr., Theresa, Erika, Ronald Jr., Byron, and Hannah

The Broken Chain

MOM,

It broke our hearts to lose you

You did not go alone.

For part of us went with you

The day God called you home.

You left us beautiful memories

Your love is still our guide.

And although we cannot see you

You are always at our side.

Our family chain is broken,

And nothing seems the same

But as God calls us one by one

The Chain will link again.

The Family

A Life Well Lived

Margerine Allen Bryant was born to the union of Oscar and Lucille Allen on March 10, 1925, in Beaumont, Texas.

She was baptized at an early age at Fellowship Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Reverend O. B. Brent. She served in the Mission, Hospitality and other ministries in the Church where needed. She continued to serve faithfully under the leadership of Pastor Tommie Williams until she could not any longer due to her health. She is a 1942 graduate of Charlton-Pollard High School. She worked at the YWCA and retired from the Beaumont Independent School District.

Sister Bryant belonged to a special group called "The Golden Girls" Gladys Washington, Hazel Stewart, Lucille Knight, Daisy Boudreaux, and Lois Martin. They shopped, ate, and went to various places.

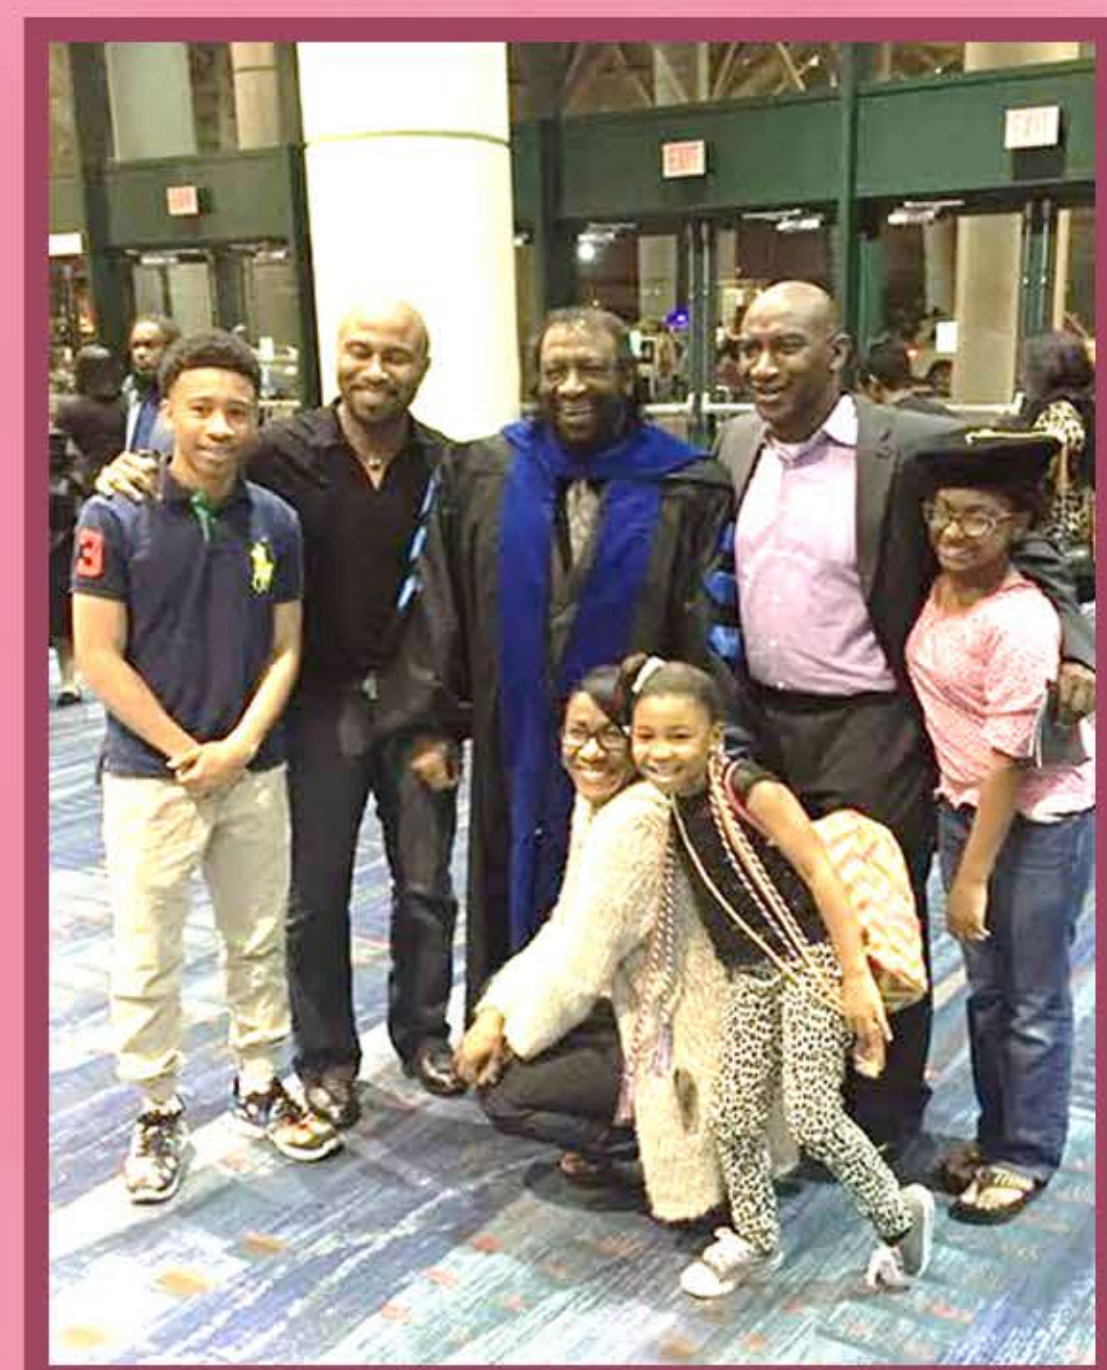

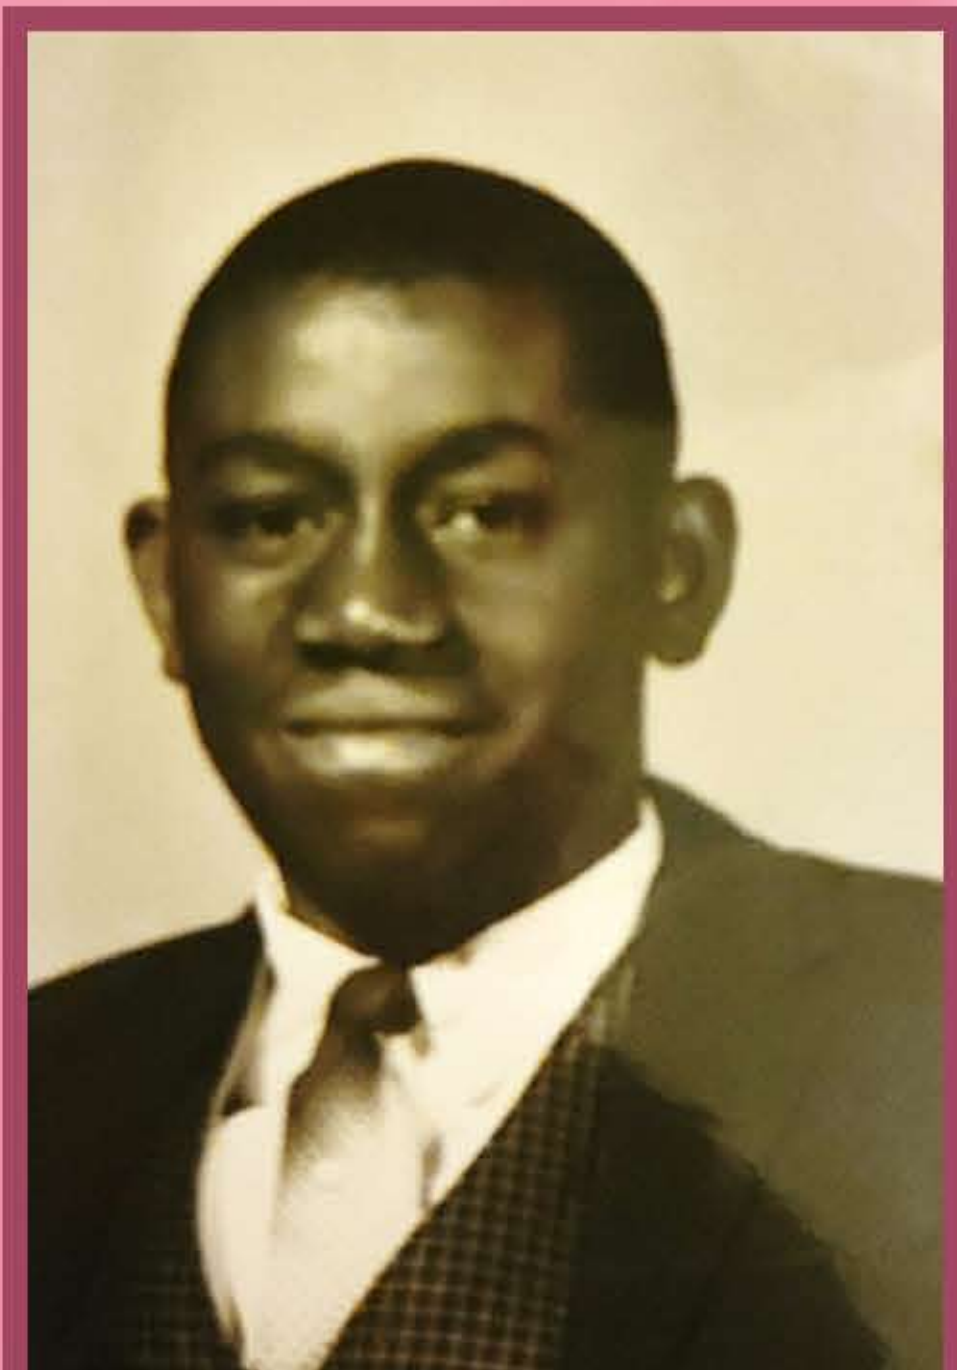

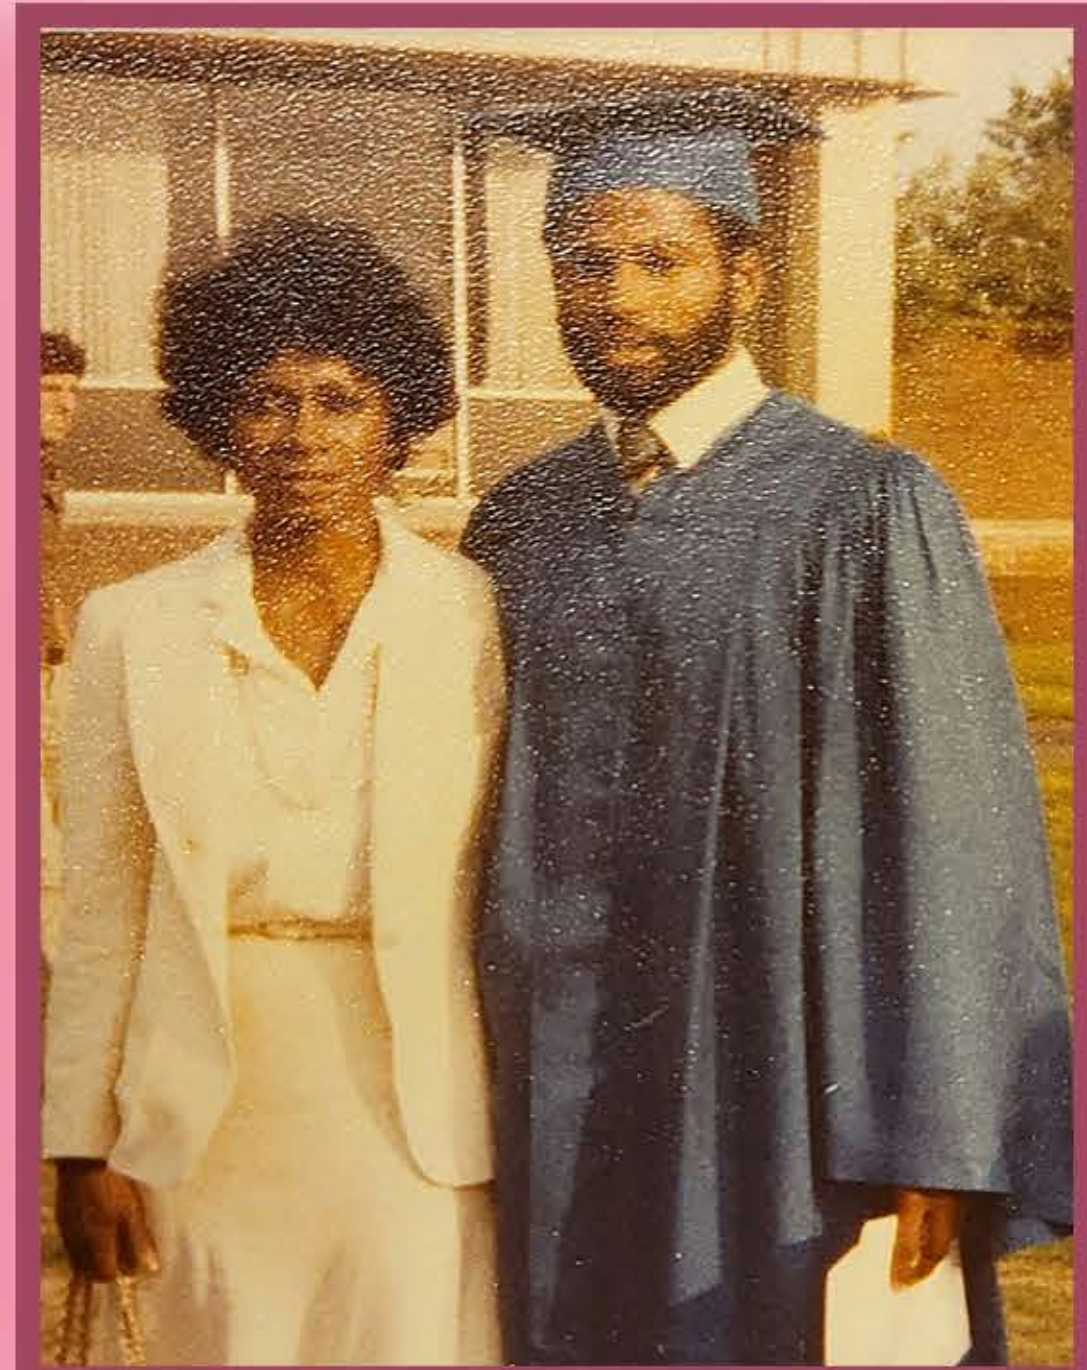

Sister Bryant later moved to Texas City, Texas to live with her son-in-law Fred and daughter Sharon Henry when her health was declining. While there she attended Fellowship Missionary Baptist Church under Pastor Dwayne K. Carpenter as much as her health allowed.

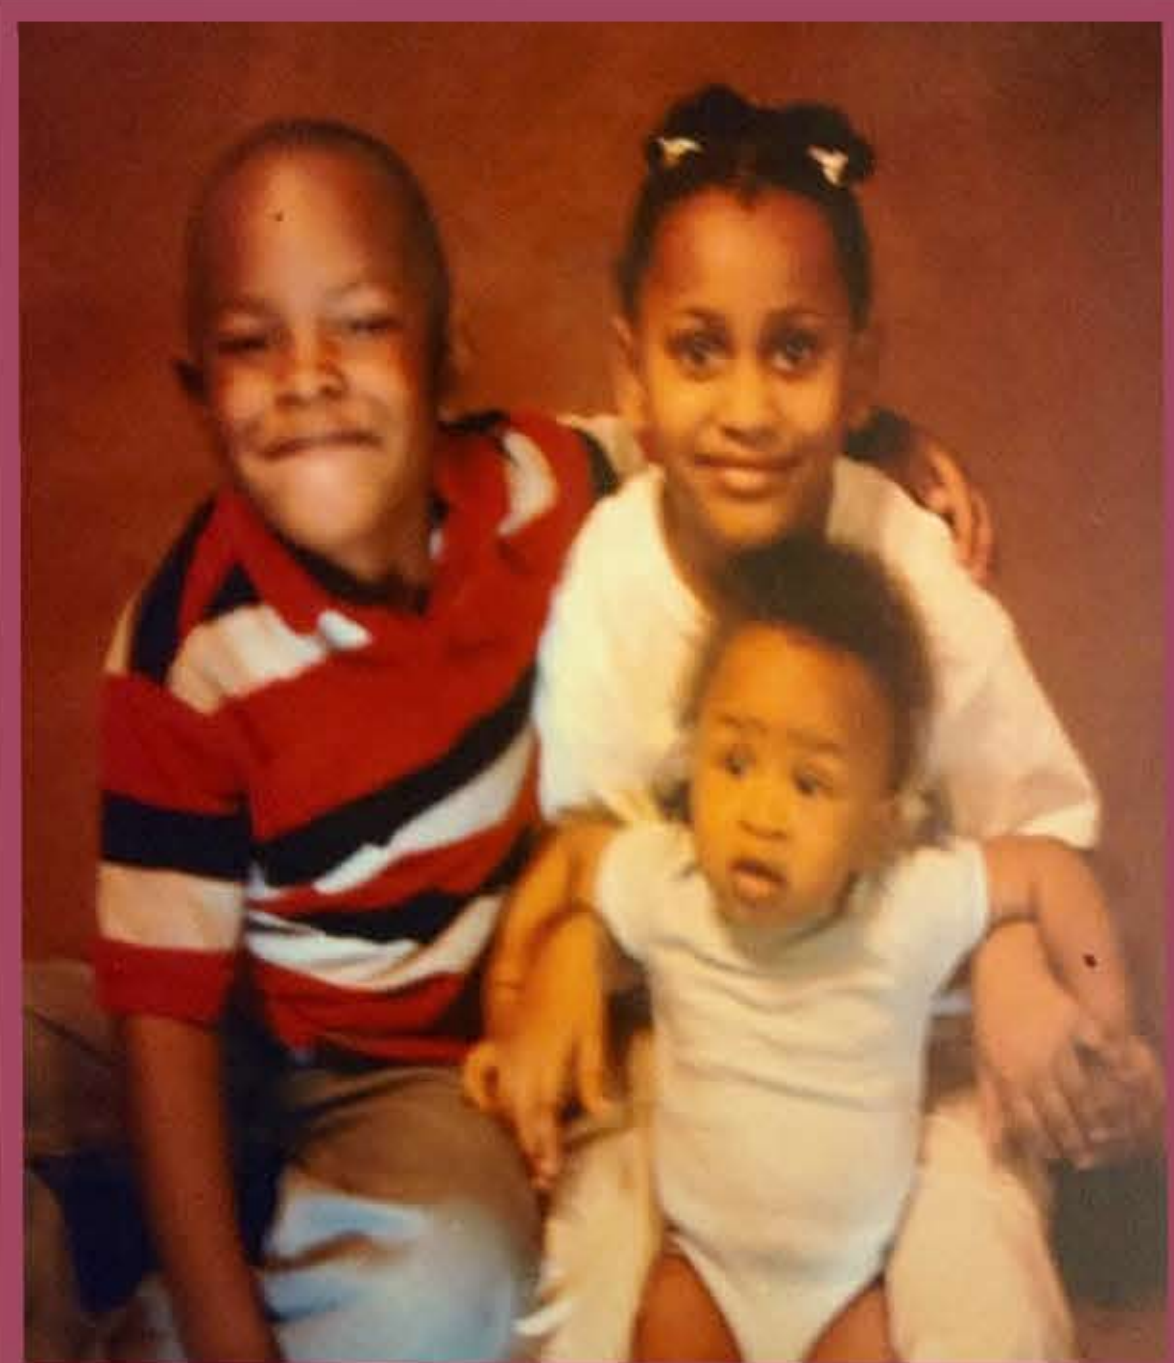

On Monday, May 17, 2021, God called her to her heavenly home to live in eternal peace. There she was reunited with her parents, Oscar and Lucille Allen; son, Donald Ray Solomon; brothers, J. D. Allen, M. H. Allen, Jack Allen, Henry Allen, and sister, Ethel Allen Thomas; uncles and aunts.

She will be cherished and missed by her caring and devoted daughter, Sharon Henry (late Fred D.), Texas City, Texas; son, Dr. Ronald A. Solomon, Sr., PhD, Santa Clara, California; six grandchildren, Ronald A. Solomon Jr. (Sophia) Baton Rouge, Louisiana, Bridgette Pete (Robert), Lake Charles, Louisiana, Byron Solomon, Houston, Texas, Fred D. Henry Jr. (Lizette) Alvin, Texas, Theresa Michele Simpson (Phillip), League City, Texas, Erika Nicole Parker, Texas City, Texas; ten great-grandchildren, Olivia Henry, Galveston, Texas, Phillip Jr. and Brooke Simpson, League City, Texas, Scott Parker Jr., Texas City, Texas, Hannah and Haleigh Pete, Lake Charles, Louisiana, Xavion Solomon, Houston, Texas, Alex, Daniel and Loren, Baton Rouge, Louisiana; niece, Claudette Gilford, Rockville, Maryland, niece JoAnn Comeaux, Beaumont, Texas, two lovely ladies in her life, Barbara Ann Solomon, Erma Solomon and host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.
