Leona M.
LEDEE GALLOW

“Do not let your hearts be troubled. You believe in God; believe also in me. My Father’s house has many rooms; if that were not so, would I have told you that I am going there to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am.” John 14:1-3

Leona LeDee Gallow was born on January 15, 1932, to Ozema LeDee and Lillie Durroseau in Lawtell, Louisiana, where she was one of six children. Her mother passed at an early age, and Leona was raised by her father and stepmother, Frances “Nan” Papillion LeDee, in a loving family that included six additional siblings. At the age of 17, Leona married Onezime Gallow, and to this union six children were born.

Leona was well known for her many years of personalized care for new mothers in the Labor and Delivery department of Saint Elizabeth Hospital in Beaumont, Texas. She was also a member of Saint Jude Thaddeus Catholic Church, where she served as a minister of hospitality. “Gram” or “Lee” as she was known to family and friends, loved family gatherings, staying physically fit, tending to her pets, dancing to zydeco music and enjoying a good game of Scrabble. She was a great cook, and she often gifted family members with her special homemade roux.

Preceding her in death is her beloved son, Ryan Jude Gallow, and her siblings, Herbert LeDee, John LeDee, Marshall LeDee, Wilbert LeDee, and Leora Weiloch.

Leaving to cherish precious memories are her children, Janice Catherine Fisher, Reginald Peter Gallow (Barbara), Susan Marie Gallow, Kevin James Gallow (Karen), and Leslie Ann Jackson; her siblings, Lorella Marshall, Willard LeDee, Jacob LeDee, David LeDee, Theme LeDee, and Moses LeDee; and a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, relatives, and friends.
