BYROZ ANDRE Jackson

Byron Andre Jackson was born October 20, 1968 in Houston, TX. He was a devoted husband, father and friend. He was very compassionate and had a big heart. He did not know a stranger.

Byron & Estela met in 2003 and were later married in 2008. Byron was a Safety Manager in the Construction Industry for over 16 years and was a dedicated employee. Although he traveled frequently for work, he was very involved with his sons school work and activities. He made sure to attend school functions and would get involved with their little league teams by volunteering to help coach and being a board member.

He was preceded in death by his mother Bertha Elaine Jackson, grandparents, Ethel and Herbert Jackson, great grandparents Bertha and Arthur Mack.

He is survived by his wife Estela Jackson, son Donovan L. Jackson, Andre I. Jackson (step son) Alec Romero, son Jamal Jackson, Tevin Jackson, Myron Jackson, Byron Jackson & Kolbe Bennett, sister Monica Hodge (Tyrone), uncle Larry Jackson, Timothy Mack, aunt Mary Jarvis, Ms. Wendell Jackson, and Iris Courtney, father and mother in law Erasmo and Maria De La Fuente, along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me, I want no rites in a gloom-filled room; Why cry for a soul set free? Miss me a little – but not too long and not with your head bowed low. Remember the love that we once shared. Miss me – but let me go.

For this is a journey that we all must take and each must go alone. It's all a part of the Master's plan, a step on the road home. When you are lonely and sick of heart, go to the friends we know and bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.

Miss me - but let me go.
