Legacy of Love

I just want to say, I thank God for the years I had with Bobby Joe. Sometimes there were good days and not so good days. But his relied on love we had for one another, and to me that's the only thing that matter. I will miss you Bobby Joe.

Your wife of fifty-four years,
Betty Robinson.

Daddy, what you left me with, was so much knowledge and independence, you showed me what this world would be and made me understand, what I could look forward to. I appreciate your guidance and love for me and there will never be another dad for me. Love you much.

Jonell.

Dear Dad,
Thank you for being a wonderful father, and teaching me everything that I needed to know to face the world. I thank God for you for sixty-one years of my life. (I'm going to miss being your caregiver). Love you daddy forever and ever honey.

Diana.

Dear Dad,
You were everything a daughter could ask for in a father. The person I am today is because of the unconditional and tender love you have shown me everyday of my life. I appreciate you being there for me and the kids you were always my rock. Dad you taught mee how to be strong and confident in who I am today. My father may have been Bobby Joe to others, but to me I called him daddy. The last time I saw my father I prayed for him and I kissed him on his forehead hoping he felt the love.

Love you Dad,
From Sherley

From the start you had my back. Gave me solid direction. Being a strong black man I saw in you what I had to do in my life. You taught me a lot how to be hard working man and my family came first. It was all love received. I'm going to miss you Papa. Love you forever.
